Introducing Phx Tucker HD and Accessories for Genesis 8 Males!

Tucker is a teen on the cusp of adulthood. He is an everyday character with several accessories crafted for Genesis 8 Males and optimized for Iray.

With a custom head, body, navel, pointed ears, and teeth, plus an HD sculpt, he's a definite step away from the default figure. Adventurous, bold, and brave, Tucker is a boy that will get under your skin and liven up any render.

He has a pale skin with a few facial "blemishes," sourced from detailed photographs of a few individuals, to make him all the more real. There are a variety of unique morphs (teeth and pointed ears) to choose from and a "temporary" tattoo (a fanciful gecko on his calf/ankle) when he wants to be rebellious. Being someone who gets into mischief, Tucker also comes with LIE options to apply a layer of dirt over his face, torso, arms, and/or legs.

Since he is much shorter than the default Genesis 8 Male and has some bones that are proportioned differently than on an adult figure, any commercial poses you own might need some adjustments. He has over two dozen JCMs to make sure he bends as naturally as possible, from his calves up to his neck, given his custom shape.

Tucker comes with several Fibermesh accessories. He has one set of brows meant to enhance his painted brow texture and 2 stand-alone sets, plus a short hairstyle with a matching LIE scalp texture.

In addition to those options, he has custom accessories as well, including a pair of woven leather bracelets and a dForce necklace (which can be worn by Genesis 8 Female as well) with 6 material options for the pendant.

To make customizing this new character easy, included are 1-click solutions for changing Translucency Strength, turning both Normal and Displacement Maps on, 50%, and off, setting him to the correct SubD level when using his HD option, and removing LIE texture options.

Phx Tucker HD and Accessories for Genesis 8 Males is waiting for you to take him home today.
